

Atlantis Investment Management is an independent asset management firm based in Hong Kong. Founded in London in 1994 by three ex-Schroders star managers, Atlantis is now headed by legendary investor Yang Liu.

We are looking for a Trader. The successful candidate will be responsible for handling the daily trade execution of the investment portfolios managed by Atlantis Investment Management Limited and will report to the Head of Trading.

Responsibilities include:

- Execute order for fund manager, markets include HK/China, Asia including Japan, US, Fixed Income and Derivatives.
- Provide market updates, news flow, and order status to fund managers.
- Communicate with team member(s) to enhance information transparency.
- Work closely and smoothly with operation and compliance.
- Maintain good relationship with brokers, manage commission, and ensure effective communication with counterparties, in order to achieve your duty.
- Provide other investment-related support to the portfolio management team as directed by the CIO.

The ideal candidate has:

- More than three years' experience as a buy-side/sell-side execution trader covering Asia Pacific markets, with experience in A-share market is a strong plus
- A bachelors' degree or above in finance or related field
- Fluent in both written and spoken Mandarin and English, Cantonese is a plus.

Interested candidates please send your details to HR@atlantisinvestment.com.