

Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this Fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

Atlantis Asian Fund: US Dollar Units

A sub-fund of the Atlantis International Umbrella Fund

ISIN: IE0008844197

Managed by Atlantis Investment Management (Ireland) Limited.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The fund aims to generate long-term capital appreciation.

The fund invests primarily in equities or equity-related securities issued by companies located in Asia (excluding Japan). These securities may be listed or traded on a range of regulated stock exchanges, although the fund may invest up to 10% of its net assets in non-listed companies.

The investment manager of the fund is permitted to choose which investments should be held in the fund. The fund invests in companies that the investment manager and fund advisor believe are undervalued and are experiencing growth that is not yet reflected in their share price.

The fund uses the MSCI All Country Far East ex Japan Index as a benchmark for performance comparison purposes.

Any income arising from the fund's investments is usually reinvested.

Investors have the opportunity to redeem their units in the fund on each business day.

For further information please see the 'Investment Objective and Policies' sections of the supplement to the prospectus for the fund.

Risk and Reward Profile

Lower risk ← Higher risk
Potentially lower reward Potentially higher reward

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.
- The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

Why is the fund in this category?

Funds in this category have shown a high historical volatility. Volatility describes how much the value of the fund went up and down in the past.

The fund also invests in the shares of smaller to medium sized companies which may have a more limited market than securities issued by larger companies.

This unit class's net asset value is calculated in US dollars while the fund's investments are denominated in the currencies of the countries in which it invests. The fund's performance may therefore be adversely affected by exchange rate movements.

The fund invests in some emerging markets where there may be a significant risk of political or economic change which could adversely affect the value of investments held there.

Full detail of the fund's risk factors is included in the fund's prospectus.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.

One-off charges taken before or after you invest
Entry charge	No charge
Exit charge	No charge
Charges taken from the Fund over a year
Ongoing charges	2.13 %
Charges taken from the Fund under certain specific conditions
Performance fee	0.50 % The fund receives a fee of up to this value depending on the extent to which it outperforms the benchmark MSCI All Country Far East ex Japan Index.

The ongoing charge is based on the fund's total expenses for the last financial year ending 31 December 2018. This figure may vary from year to year. It excludes:

- performance fees; and
- portfolio transaction costs, except in the case of an entry/exit charge paid by the fund when buying or selling units in another collective investment undertaking.

A performance fee of 0.50% was paid for the fund's last financial year.

For more information about charges, please consult the relevant part of the fund's prospectus.
