Atlantis Asian Fund: US Dollar Units

A sub-fund of the Atlantis International Umbrella Fund

ISIN: IE0008844197

Managed by Atlantis Investment Management (Ireland) Limited.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The fund aims to generate long-term capital appreciation primarily through an actively managed portfolio of equity or equity related investments (such as fixed or floating rate convertible bonds issued by corporate, sovereign or institutional issuers of above or below investment grade or warrants) in companies in Asia (excluding Japan).

These securities may be listed or traded on a range of regulated stock exchanges, although the fund may invest up to 10% of its net assets in non-listed companies. The fund will at all times invest more than 50% of its net asset value directly in equity securities. The fund may invest in and have direct access to A-shares listed on the Shanghai Stock Exchange via the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect scheme and/or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange via the Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect scheme, subject to a limit of 20% of the net asset value of the fund. The fund may also invest in equity linked securities typically issued by credit institutions or other financial institutions located worldwide, the underlyings of which will be one or more Asian equity securities and which may or may not embed a derivative. Such equity linked securities will constitute transferable securities which will be listed, traded or dealt on a recognised exchange or, unlisted securities. The fund may also invest up to 10% of its net assets in equity real estate investment trusts (REITs) which are listed on the Kuala Lumpur Stock Exchange, the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Singapore Stock Exchange, the Shanghai Stock Exchange or on the Shenzhen Stock Exchange.

The fund is considered to be actively managed in reference to the FACTSET Asia Ex Japan Index by virtue of the fact that it uses the FACTSET Asia Ex Japan Index for performance comparison purposes in respect of all units in the Fund. However the FACTSET Asia Ex Japan Index is not used to define the portfolio composition of the fund or as a performance target and the fund may be wholly invested in securities which are not constituents of the FACTSET Asia Ex Japan Index.

The fund is also considered to be actively managed in reference to the MSCI AC Far East ex Japan Index by virtue of the fact that the performance fees payable in respect of certain other unit classes in the fund, namely the U.S. Dollar Units, GBP Units and Euro Units are calculated based on the performance of the fund against the MSCI AC Far East ex Japan Index. However the MSCI AC Far East ex Japan Index is not used to define the portfolio composition of the fund or as a performance target and the fund may be wholly invested in securities which are not constituents of the MSCI AC Far East ex Japan Index.

The fund invests in companies that the investment manager believes are undervalued and are experiencing growth that is not yet reflected in their share price.

Any income arising from the fund's investments is reinvested.

Units can normally be bought and sold on any business day, being a day on which banks are open for business in Dublin, London and Hong Kong.

For further information please see the 'Investment Objective and Policies' section of the supplement to the prospectus for the fund.

Risk and Reward Profile

Lower risk ← Higher risk
Potentially lower reward ← Potentially higher reward

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.
- The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

Why is the fund in this category?

Funds in this category have shown a high historical volatility. Volatility describes how much the value of the fund went up and down in the past.

The fund also invests in the shares of smaller to medium sized companies which may have a more limited market than securities issued by larger companies.

This unit class's net asset value is calculated in US dollars while the fund's investments are denominated in the currencies of the countries in which it invests. The fund's performance may therefore be adversely affected by exchange rate movements.

The fund invests in some emerging markets where there may be a significant risk of political or economic change which could adversely affect the value of investments held there.

For further information please see the 'Risk Factors' section of the supplement to the prospectus for the fund.

Charges

The charges you pay are used to pay the costs of running the Fund, including the costs of marketing and distributing it. These charges reduce the potential growth of your investment.
